

Song of Purpose

For the benefit of all in need,
A helping hand to those we can.
Aiding as in our power,
Call our Gods to Bless,
Those as we may encounter.
With the greatest of our efforts,
Working to craft light in future's Hope.

Song of Formation

(Order)

To lead services a Circle Guide,
Over Esbats and Sabbats preside.
Record keeper is the Circle Scribe,
Members, minutes, and pertinent tides.
Collector of funds, Circle Purser,
Wisely spend at Coven decree.
Appoint at need assistants to be,
Duties to lighten workload so large.
Elections just before Samhain held,
Priests and Priestesses may choose to run,
Office to begin after Samhain.
Any High Priest or High Priestess must,
Take action regarding all just claims.

(Temple)

Sacred Space, harmony Blessed Circle.
Cleansed and Deity Blessed are our grounds,
Whose guardian spells safety assure.
To erect Temple, prayer and time,
Maintain Temple through Altar and Shrine,
Altar of Divine Duality,
Shrine to honor those of the Beyond,
Two offerings daily to unite.
Proud participants in politics,
Just taxes paid as patriots should.
Temple Rites High Cleric must perform,
Delegating tasks for gatherings,
Priest or Priestess in comfort to guide.

(Gatherings)

First, Full, and New we gather for Her.
His Eight Sacred Yearly Festivals.
The Day of Trance we honor the leaf.
Celebrate passage of each Five Gates.
Our best efforts for special concerns,
Gather for votes as best to decide.
Election tallies only present.
Gathering for those in need of us.
Democracy within our communes,
Blessing all with fulfillment of needs,
For more than just needs, striving we must.
Education the goal, we explore,
On our own and in groups large and small.

(Relations)

High Cleric to guide religious rites,
And insure Coven interests are true.
Inner Circle includes United,
And charges to young and self-chosen.
Family by blood honored their due.
Real friends, family deep and lasting.
Apprentices must study with Guides.
Guests of Circle welcome to explore.
Our communes great and small care for all,
Governed from within, those concerned give,
For each person meet knowledge and needs.
Further advancement of life through deeds,
Advocate the sowing of these seeds.

(Powers)

One vote for each of the United.
One vote for all beyond passage in,
Communes who claim affiliation.
Free speech a right for all to enjoy,
And that most hurtful leads to helpful.
Realities limitless to see,
We strive to know within and without.
Express the self in non-hurtful ways.
In your heart to reconcile your faith,
From others belief you may partake.
Of that which is yours, you can defend,
Of greatest importance is life and limb,
Take all measures needed for the stake.

(Tradition)

Respect the web of all creation,
While knowing that we have living needs,
Intricately worked into the wheel.
Providing for ours and those we can,
Healing mind, body, and spirit kind.
Pursuit of knowledge to hone our skills,
And to sharpen our intuition.
Harmonize with wonders old and new,
Ancient ideals to be revered,
Modern ideas to be explored.
Progressive growth is ever our goal,
Finding a light to shine on the way,
As we trod the path of our future.

(Young)

Our children's job is to learn and grow,

To elders listen responsibly,
Dreaming big and sharing along the way.

Guardian or more largest duty,
Borne carefully with great respect,
Providing for ones too small, later,
Guiding to acquisition of needs.

Circle to teach application of,
Spiritual and psychic tools to truth,
Forever to seek within this life.

Communes provide learning and safety,
Placing both within reachable ease,
While encouraging persons unique.

(Apprenticeship)

Young are apprentice to be adult.

Guides to lead as students must follow,
Do not learn blindly, question the plan.

Focus and research endlessly done,
Facts to be known as history maps.

Practice your arts to bring future skill,
Confidence to build with each great work.

Formulate theories and test their song,
To prove or disprove through data found.

Outlined objectives achieved throughout,
Ascending perspective beyond doubt.

Demonstrating knowledge gained through strides,
Skills are proven and soon to preside.

(Guides, Healers, Seers, and Casters)

Guides light ways to knowledge absorption,
Pursuing always the highest goals.

Healers care for those whose health demands,
Assuring high quality of care.

Seers feel tides past, now, or after,
High standards of perception project.

Casters craft spells on paths to assist,
Assistance assured of spells to make.

With time arise other needs for skills,
Pursuit as always quality best.

High Clerics to monitor goals,
Those who are proven, sanctioned as such,
And assure that all guidelines are placed.

(Clergy)

Priests and Priestesses are qualified,
Through apprenticeship with United.

Uphold the ethics for Unity,

And involve in Circle decisions.
Any may choose to guide new seekers,
Though ability must be proven.
High Clerics have studied with their Guides,
Intricately all Rites and Five Gates.
Dedicated to our Sacred Songs,
Entering through the Song of Service,
And performing Daily Temple Rites.
High Clerics must dedicate as guides,
And serve the Circle in outlined ways.

(Preservation)

Respond to threats appropriately,
To secure at first defensive spells,
Change course if threats continue to rise.
Family, beliefs, and self defend,
From any that would cut at Love's bonds.
Watch over your fellow's safety too,
As they attempt to look out for you.
Commune's security depends on,
Residents collective effort to,
Secure the grounds for all those within.
Security for all Temple grounds,
With spells shaped into guardians,
More force to take in emergency.

(Exclusion)

Regulatory process watching,
Abuse of power no tolerance,
Treating ethical malignancies,
And excising malicious natured.
Help those who have stumbled along the way,
To find their internal guiding light,
Should assistance fail, demotion, or,
Possible exclusion from Circle.

Inability to interact,
Constructively will lead to exile.
All accused have rights of disclosure,
And no judgments passed without proper,
Hearing and weighing all evidence.

(Dedication)

To live in the service of our Gods,
Is to live in the service of All.
Freedom to pursue spiritual heights,
To study mystery and all life,
This is our Sacred Quest of meaning.

Seekers we are of Knowledge Holy,
To create a simple binding brew,
The Grand Unifying Theory is,
The plan of which we all are fit to.
Our Sacred Songs help light the way,
To respect all progressive cycles,
Be it man, universe, or mountain,
All are brothers of creation.

Song of Unity

Grand Mother, Birther of the All
Bind me, within Your family
You are the Womb of Creation
I, your dedicated seeker
Choose to join Your path in light

Grand Father, Seeder of the All
Bind me, within Your family
You are the Fount of Creation
I, Your dedicated seeker
Choose to join Your path in light

This Coven, a Circle Haven
Now this, my family, I bind
My love, faith, and hope to you
Ideals with honor obey
With heart, until what is, is not

Song of Transition

Foggy the path, inward flowing
Perspective shift, outward knowing
Circle magick, deeply toking
Pacify doubt, devoutly smoking
The seeds within, sacred sowing

Song of Grand Mother

(Maiden)

She, the youthful flight of fancy,
Blossoming through our fields.
Start the month within Her dance,
Across the starry expanse.
Fresh perspective of joyous bliss,
Alight her crisp new gifts.

(Mother)

She, the Mother of all that is,
Creating all we see.
Full bloom is Her radiance,
Blasting through the shadows' depths.
Her power over the Earth flows,
To Her devout it goes.

(Crone)

She, the wisest of all sages,
Pervading through our home.
End the month lost in Her song,
Sowing the seeds of wisdom.
Her perspective brings to us this,
Compact of Coven trust.

Song of Grand Father

(Yule)

Rising upon the horizon
Sacred newborn Sun flare
Awaken flame within
Earth and peoples do depend
Guiding light upon the air
Spinning wheel, turning on
Come alive in His song
Welcome to He who is renewed

(Imbolc)

Youthful purity of Love flows
Fanning the sacred flame
Deep bonfire They stroke
Within us to light the way
Sentiment of future bliss
Romancing is the air
Spring to be unveiled
Divine courtship of the sublime

(Ostara)

About our Earth life springs anew
Younglings around the flock
Freshly to see the world
Fertile She is to receive
Showering Her with His seed
Sowing what is to be
Nine months until rebirth
Awaken this world from dream

(Beltain)

Holy union deep with passion
Announced for all to see
Beauty in harmony
Handfasted forever-more
Sacred fertility dance
Combine in ecstasy
As one we do become
For as long as the love shall last

(Litha)

Grand Father in His majesty
Blazing gold in the sky
In the fullness of time
Grown to solar pinnacle
Power flying through the air

Gliding beyond the peak
After, He does recede
Revel in gifts found within thee
(Lammas)

Now begin reward from toil
Both in soil and ether
Rising grains as a sea
Long in growth above the Earth
In waning, Himself, He gives
First harvest of the year
Great is this sacrifice
Final flowering of the seed
(Mabon)

Great tradition of family
Around the hearth to see
Fruition of the seed
Second harvest of the year
Gather for the feast to be
Lovely, though riding low
A light upon the way
Passing wisdom unto our young
(Samhain)

Turning the wheel to the new year
Third and final harvest
The web seeming unspun
Blowing wide the ancient veil
Announcing His Ascension
Stirring in the cauldron
She in mourning for Him
Awaiting return to Naming

Song of Life

Gate 1 (Naming)

Golden life anew
Lovely little form
Manifest in full
Charged to help unfold
A joy to behold

Gate 2 (Progression)

Charging forward full of life
Shifting view, changing focus
Perspective of futures new Align in sight life's delight
Beginning adult journey

Gate 3 (Passage)

Looking back from adult summit
Journeys remembered long and hard
Fresh new path into the future
The feet they log to wander on
Following the light of this dawn

Gate 4 (Handfasting)

The song of life, full and sacred style
Joining hearts within this joyous dance
Entwine these lives as Love has chosen
Unions complete and these paths now one
One, for as long as the Love shall last

Gate 5 (Ascension)

Awaken into Now, spirit free and bound
All at once everywhere, cosmic span and scale
Journeys yet to be found, out in the Beyond
Culminating wisdom gazing through past doors
Many options open, all the keys are had

Song of Magick

Alchemical solution
With science and mystery
Learn what one can about all
Understanding to rise
As powers of knowledge grow

Open doors along the path
Setting up chain reactions
Desired action becomes
The path of least resistance
Achievements drawn within reach

Study and action to brew
Establishing perception
Reality to reveal
Keys to a deep connection
Within the spirit to hold

Song of Eternity

Timeless and eternal is Now
Beginning and end for All
Echoes great and small
Forever reside
Without true lasting divide
Timeless and eternal is Now

Song of Service

Grand Mother, Birther of the All
To You, I pledge, deep lasting faith
You are the Womb of Creation
I, Your dedicated student
Seek to follow Your path in light

Grand Father, Seeder of the All
To You, I pledge, deep lasting faith
You are the Fount of Creation
I, Your dedicated student
Seek to follow Your path in light

Our Coven, a Circle Haven
To this, my family, I pledge
Devotion, wisdom, Love, and hope
Ideals with honor obey
With heart, until what is, is not
